

SECRET

GUIDED MISSILE AND ASTRONAUTICS INTELLIGENCE COMMITTEE

17 March 1959

MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive, Office of Scientific Intelligence/CIA
SUBJECT : FY 1959 Allocation for Foreign and Domestic Travel
REFERENCE : Your Memo, same subject, dated 3 March 1959, SECRET

1. The only official travel which appears probable by members of the Guided Missile and Astronautics Intelligence Committee Secretariat prior to end of Fiscal Year 1959 is as follows:

a. DOMESTIC TRAVEL

25X1A

(1) One trip to New York City, New York -- three days --
[REDACTED] to attend IRE Conference; March 23 - 26.

25X1A

(2) One trip to Sandia Base, New Mexico -- six days --
[REDACTED] to attend Special Weapons Orientation Course;
during May as scheduled by OTR/CIA.

25X1A

(3) One trip to Cape Canaveral, Florida -- seven days -- [REDACTED] to attend orientation of missile launching sites.

25X1A

(4) Two trips to AFIC/Dayton, Ohio -- two - three days -- [REDACTED] coordination and briefings.

b. FOREIGN TRAVEL

A trip to London, and possibly Frankfurt, Germany; Greece; Spain; Turkey; Pakistan -- to accompany Chairman, CMAIC, and participate in follow-up meetings on [REDACTED] Conference; in Europe to inspect and brief collectors on guided missile problems -- three weeks. This trip is now only a possibility because of conflicts for time.

25X1A

SECRET